

Newlands Girls' School Home School Agreement

The school will:

- Provide High quality teaching in a calm and supportive environment
- Adapt lessons to support students of different abilities including those with SEND
- Help students demonstrate and live the school's values of Courage, Compassion and Commitment
- Provide regular feedback to students on how to progress in a variety of forms
- Recognise and praise achievements
- Set no limits on what can be achieved by all students
- Put on a wide variety of extra curricular and enrichment activities and visits
- Support the development of students' full potential
- Provide pastoral support for students' health and well-being
- Deliver high quality Careers Education, Information, Advice and Guidance
- Treat all students fair and courteously
- Provide clear information on the school's curriculum
- Ensure that any incidents of bullying or prejudice are dealt with swiftly and fairly
- Provide clear information about the school's codes of behaviour and uniform
- Provide regular reports and feedback on their students' progress
- Ensure prompt communication about problems with students' progress, work or behaviour
- Respond to parental communications in a timely manner and as per the Communications Policy
- Provide a letter or calendar providing specific dates and deadlines
- Consistently and fairly apply the behaviour policy
- Challenge and support attendance that is causing concern
- Set homework regularly following the published homework timetable
- Maintain an informative and up to date school website

Students will:

- Uphold and demonstrate the school's values of Courage, Compassion and Commitment
- Work to the best of their best ability
- Wear the correct school uniform with pride
- Complete homework and coursework promptly and on time
- Respect the school environment
- Mutually respect all members of the school community
- Aim for 100% attendance and ensure they are on time for all lessons and activities
- Request help or support when needed
- Ensure they have the correct equipment
- Report any incidents of bullying or prejudice
- Be responsible for the day-to-day organisation of uniform and equipment
- Deliver information from school to their Parents of Carers
- Be ambassadors for the school in the wider community

Parents and Carers will:

- Support their child to demonstrate and live the school’s values of Courage, Compassion and Commitment
- Work in partnership with the school
- Show an appreciation of their child’s efforts and positive achievements
- Attended Parents’ Evenings
- Help provide a suitable environment in which to study
- Ensure their child has excellent punctuality and attendance
- Provide the correct school uniform and equipment
- Support the school’s application of the behaviour policy
- Provide information about any change in home circumstances that could affect their child’s performance
- Monitor the completion of homework and sign the planner each week
- Read and respond accordingly to all communications from the school

STUDENT

I have read and support the Home - School Agreement

Signed:

PARENT/CARER

I/We have read and support the Home - School Agreement

Signed:

SCHOOL

Welcome to Newlands Girls’ School. We support the Home - School Agreement and look forward to working in close partnership with you.

Signed:

Miss J. Capon Headteacher

Date: April 2023